Panasonic an important Solution Provider in the Market

Panasonic Unified Communication solutions come with an exciting array of business intelligent features and applications specifically designed to enhance your businesses and improve the customer experience.

Panasonic provides solutions for:

- Single or multi-site offices.
- Staff working at home or on the road.
- Out of hours call handling and availability.
- Flexible, cost effective solutions to improve your lead-sales ratio.

With the Panasonic Solution for public administration – it's easy to setup and manage a small call centre solution, providing advanced call handling solutions for all calls arriving from customers. Local council business is often a mobile business and staff can be part of the team wherever they might be, in the office, with customers, or travelling to a different office.

Improving communications with your customers is the key to success, and Panasonic Unified Communications is designed to do just that, and much more. With solutions for dedicated call operators through to advanced auto attendant solutions, Panasonic solutions have the tools you need for success.

Provide you staff with real-time information about the availability of other members using applications designed for Microsoft Windows desktop PC's.

Never miss a call

Built-in auto attendant makes sure that customer are never kept waiting during a busy period. Auto attendant provides customers with easy to use voice response to guide them directly to the required member of staff, wherever they might be, saving time and money and allowing other staff to focus on customers in the office. For the extra busy and out-of-office periods, individual voicemail for all staff ensures all early or late callers can leave appropriate messages.

Save money and reduce costs

Looking to replace an existing solution?

Panasonic systems work with a wide range of IP and digital handset devices, and support migration for 4 generations of handsets, including basic industry standard analogue.

Panasonic solutions are very efficient in power consumption, some consuming over 54% less than previous generations of products.

Stay in Touch

Mobile phones are an essential part in local council business ensuring that staff never miss calls. Panasonic solutions allow all calls to be handled from your desk or mobile phones with the same number, with no need to offer multiple numbers.

Need mobility in the office without using a mobile phone?

Panasonic offers a range of DECT wireless handsets that work well within and around your business premises, again keeping just one number for immediate access for all staff and customers alike.
